

How To Get A More Private Detox If Your Community Reputation Is On The Line

Posted on July 30, 2021

Addiction is a hard thing to struggle with. The battle becomes doubly difficult if you don't want others to find out about your struggle with drug or alcohol abuse.

We at the Findlay Recovery Center in Ohio understand where you're coming from. Maybe you're a prominent person in your community and your reputation would be ruined if people found out about your substance abuse. Or perhaps you're just a private person who doesn't want the stigma attached to addiction or rehab to touch your family, friends, and other loved ones.

If you're in this situation, you're probably wondering if you can get private detox services as part of your alcohol addiction treatment. Is it possible to receive private drug addiction treatment in Ohio?

Private Addiction Treatment in Ohio

The simple answer is Yes, private addiction treatment is available in Ohio.

At the Findlay Recovery Center, we take care to provide private addiction treatment services for all our clients. You can be assured that details of your treatment will be kept confidential throughout your treatment at our rehab facility. Knowing this should help you relax and focus on your recovery.

Receiving private detox and other treatment services at our facility comes with several advantages including:

- Individualized treatment plans. All our clients receive tailor-made treatment plans that are based on their level of addiction as well as their recovery needs.
- Qualified medical personnel on hand. Some of our staff members are doctors and nurses with the requisite experience needed to safely guide our clients through detoxification and dealing with withdrawal symptoms. We also have personality disorder counselors who know how to assist those with co-occurring diagnoses e.g. depression to get better.
- A private and conducive environment. Our rehab facility in Ohio is designed with our client's privacy in mind. Here you'll find a welcoming and safe environment that goes a long way towards promoting sobriety and recovery.
